Mission Statement
To prevent child abuse and neglect and to lessen the trauma to child victims of sexual and severe physical abuse during the investigative, prosecutorial and healing process.

Our Children... Our Future
For 25 years the doors of Garth House have been open to the abused children of Southeast Texas. Garth House provides a safe environment to interview children regarding allegations of physical and sexual abuse. The children have a comfortable surrounding to tell their experience, which is recorded and preserved on DVD for use by Law Enforcement and Child Protective Services. Counseling provided by Garth House not only heals the emotional trauma to the children and their caregivers, but lessens the likelihood of re-victimization. Our program has grown since 1991. Garth House now serves six counties including Hardin, Jasper, Jefferson, Newton, Orange and Tyler.

- Over 11,400 recorded forensic interviews of alleged child victims and witnesses since 1991.
- Multi-disciplinary Team Case Review
- Statistical Case Tracking/Reporting
- Providing Expert Court Testimony
- Awareness/Prevention Training Programs for the Community
- Over 2,000 therapy sessions were conducted with child victims and their families last year.
- Review Coordination of Jefferson and Orange County Child Fatality

You can help!
Included in this brochure you will find a sponsorship form for our second annual, Designer Purse Bingo Fundraiser, being held on April 27, 2017. We are very excited for the 2017 event! We are planning for 1,000 guests to enjoy marvelous offerings of food, drink and fun. The single pre-sale ticket price of just $50 for this event will make this evening available to most friends, family members and co-workers. We believe that this unique event will reach out to many of our faithful supporters as well as a new audience who may not currently participate in our annual gala or golf tournament. We are also thrilled that this affair is geared specifically to women with 30 fabulous designer purses up for grabs as well as fun door prizes and a silent auction. We invite you to be a part of this brand new fundraiser through sponsorship. Help continue our support and programs for children and families in our community.
